Hondo Knocker's Prayer.

(PRINTED ON REQUEST)

Lord, please don't let Hondo grow.
I have been here for 45 years and during that time I have fought every public improvement.

I have knocked everything and everybody. No firm or individual has established a business here without my doing all I could to put them out of business. I've lied about them and would have stolen from them if I had had the courage. I've done all I could to keep the town from growing and never have spoken a good word for it.
I've knocked hard and often. I have put ashes on the children's slide and have made the public stop the boys from playing ball on my vacant lots.

Whenever I saw anyone prospering or enjoying himself I started a reform to kill the business or spoil the fun.
I don't want the young folks to stay in this town and will do all I can by law, or rule or ordinance to drive them away. I have always advised the people of Hondo to buy their goods of catalogue houses, Chicago, New York, or Dallas, although I knew they could buy them cheaper at home. It pains me, O Lord, to see, in spite of my knocking Hondo continues to grow.

Some day, I fear, I will be called upon to put pavement in front of my property and who knows, I may have to help keep the streets up in front of my business. This O Lord would be more than I could bear. It would cost me money, although all I have made was right here in this country and town. Then, too, more people will begin to come if the town continues to grow, which would cause me to lose some of my pull. Dear Lord I ask therefore to keep this town at a standstill, that I may continue to be chief calamity howler.

O Lord, keep the people away from the theater, the dance, parties, pool halls and skating rinks and don't let them read the Hondo Anvil Herald for it never knocks. Keep the young people, O, Lord, from having dances, music or picnics, barbecues—as it pierces my heart to be called upon for one round semoleon. I ask thee, O, Lord, to the depths of my heart to keep the people from these pleasant things for I want their money myself.

Stop these things, O, Lord, and grant
my prayer. Amen.

A KNOCKER.

In Memoriam

In memory of little Walter Boehle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Boehle, who died Dec. 4, 1920 at Hondo, Tex.
at the age of 1 month, 10 days.

Another little lamb has gone.

To dwell with him who gave,

Another little darling babe

Is sheltered in the grave.

God needed one more angel child

Amidst His shining band,

And so He beth with loving hand

And clasped little Walter's hand.

Yet again we hope to meet thee,

When the day of life is fled

When in heaven in joy to greet thee

Where no farewell tears are shed.

MERRY CHRISTMAS!

I am that which though it scattereth increaseth.

I foster a beautiful myth that joy may become a grand reality in the hopeful heart of a child.

I give to the ardent youth a chance that without me would leave many love tokens unex-pressed.

I give to age release from the burden of the years by awakening happy memories of the past.

I am the hopeful anticipation of childhood, the chosen opportunity of youth, the pleasant recollection of age.

I awaken the pleasure of remembering and teach that it is more blessed to give than to receive.

I am that which teaches that the giver is most blessed by the spirit of the gift.

I receive with joy from the hands of poverty gifts rarer than lies in the power of Midas to bestow.

I visit the hovel and pass not by any abode where Love is.

I put joy in every heart and happiness in every home.

I awaken anew in every soul
the music of the anglic choir:

"Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace, good will toward men."

I am the SPIRIT OF CHRISTMAS!
Merry Christmas!

Captain Cooke

Feels Fine Now

Veteran Conductor Praised Tan-iac For Overcoming His Troubles.

"A few bottles of Taniac made me feel just like a new man," said Capt.
F. M. Cooke, 144 East Winifred St., St. Paul, Minn., for fifteen years a conductor on the Great Northern railroad and one of the most popular men of the system."

"For years," continued Capt. Cooke,
"I had stomach trouble so bad that what little I did manage to eat would cause me to become terribly nauseated.
Gas pressed up against my heart so I could hardly breathe, and I had terrible headaches that would last two or three weeks and nearly drive me wild. I would become so dizzy at times that I had to hold to something to keep from falling, and my nerves got in such shape I could sleep but very little. Every morning I felt dull and heavy and all rundown."

"Nothing I tried did me any good,
and I kept getting worse until a friend suggested that I try Taniac. I followed his advice and to make a long story short, I never felt better in my life than I do now. I eat everything they set before me and nothing disagrees with me. Every symptom of all troubles has left me completely and I fee-ten years younger. Taniac has certainly won my gratitude."

Taniac is sold in Hondo by W. H.
Windrow; in Castrovile by Joseph Couraud & Co.; and in Dunlay by Louis
A. Haby.

PLEASURE HAD SAD ENDING

Four in a Tub, With Soiled Clothing, Too Much for the Patience of Mother.

My young brother Billie was mischievous, and had to be watched carefully. Mother was busy making a birthday gift one afternoon, and Johnny and I were playing near her, with our dog Jim.

Suddenly mother said: "Where's Billie?"

We said we didn't know, so were sent to find him. I looked everywhere. When I came to the bathroom, there was Billie in the tub which he'd filled with water, and he had his clothes on. "C'm in," he said, and I scrambled in too.

We were enjoying ourselves immensely when in came Johnny, dragging the dog Jim. He managed to get Jim and himself in the tub, and we all had a fine time splashing.

Suddenly mother entered. "Out of that tub," she ordered. We got out. "Undress and go to bed at once." We went, supplerless.—Exchange.

COUNTRY'S FIRST CORN MILL

Recent Discoveries Establish Its Site at a Point on the St. Croix River, Eastport Me.

The site of what undoubtedly was the first tidewater mill on the American continent has been discovered at Red Beach, Me., where Low's brook empties into the St. Croix river at a point nearly opposite the southern end of Dochet's island, where De Monts and his men settled in the year 1604, three years before the settlement of Jamestown. In excavating for a fish pond near his summer home, R. S. McCarter of Cambridge, Mass., unearthed the unmistakable remains of an ancient dam of stone and timbers. Comparing the site with the original map of the island, authorities agreed that it must have been the site of the water mill mentioned in the old records as employed by Sieur De Monts and his men to grind their corn, being the largest stream within an area of several miles on either side of the river.

One Explanation.

The teacher was explaining things to the boys in his class.

"For instance, I want to introduce water into my house. I turn it on. The pipes and every convenience are in order, but I get no water. Can any of you tell me why?"

He expected the children to see that it was because he had not made a connection with the main in the street. The boys looked perplexed. They could not see why the water should refuse to run into his premises after such faultless plumbing.

"Can no one tell me what I have neglected?" reiterated the good man, looking at the many wondering faces bowed down by the weight of the problem.

"I know," squeaked one boy at last; "you don't pay up!"

No Words Wasted.

"What's the trouble?" asked the man in the barber's chair.

"No trouble, I hope, sir. Everything seems all right."

"But you don't write away the time with news and comment as you formerly did."

"Against the rules to do so, sir. If you want a lecture it will be charged for extra the same as bay rum or hair tonic."

Still Ambiguous.

Miss Engstrom, one of the history teachers in a Terre Haute high school, is much inclined to be exact. One day her class was studying the life of Columbus. She asked one of the pupils, "How many voyages did Columbus make?"

"Three," was his answer.

"No, he made four," she corrected.

"But I don't know a thing about that fourth voyage," protested the boy. "I don't even know where he went."

"I don't either," she agreed. "He died just a few days after he started out from port."

Credit to the Profession.

"Who are the principals in this breach of promise suit?" asked Mr. Dubwaite.

"A telephone girl and a millionaire," answered Lawyer Beagles. "If you will pardon the slang, she seems to have his number."

"Ah! And how long did it take her to get his number?"

"About two years."

"She's a telephone girl, all right!"—Birmingham Age-Herald.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 24, 1920.

(From The Juajilla Leaf.) ALL-STAR FOOTBALL TEAM.

The 1920 football season which has just closed has been a great one in several respects. The grade of football has been improved, more people have become interested in the game, and the foundation for a more representative schedule next year has been laid.

This year there were six teams in the field, Pearsall, Hondo, Sabinal, Uvalde, Eagle Pass and Del Rio, and these teams were clearly divided into two divisions. Uvalde, Sabinal, and Hondo were in the upper, and Pearsall, Eagle Pass, and Del Rio were in the lower division. The reason these three teams were in the lower division is very easily explained, and next year I expect to see the competition a great deal keener. This was the first year for both Eagle Pass and Del Rio and they could not be expected to equal the more experienced teams of the district. Pearsall was badly handicapped by lack of material, as shown by them in their last game with Uvalde when they were forced to retire from the game due to the lack of substitutes, and it is the opinion of the writer that Hudson did exceptionally well with the material he had.

It is to be regretted that Uvalde, Sabinal, and Hondo could not get to top form at same time, for a game between them would have been more than interesting. Uvalde started the season like they were going to fire, and defeated Sabinal, Hondo, and Pearsall with ease, only to be returned by Sabinal, who in turn defeated Uvalde, Hondo, and Pearsall, and they were replaced by Hondo who finished the season with wins over both Sabinal and Uvalde. This leaves a very muddled situation. Uvalde claims the championship on percentage, having won six of her eight games. Hondo claims it, having closed the season with wins over both Sabinal and Uvalde, while Sabinal feels that neither of them have an advantage over her as she has won and lost one game to each of them. It is to be hoped that next year there will be enough teams in the field from this district, that each team can play every team in the district ONCE and decide the championship on percentage basis. I think if the different coaches would try to arrange their schedules in this manner it would be the best thing that they could do for the game in this district.

In selecting an ALL STAR team, I have consulted every coach in the district and believe that the following team is the best that can be selected from the district. On this team I have used four players from Uvalde, three each from Hondo and Sabinal and one from Pearsall. I did not give a place to Del Rio or Eagle Pass as their players are lacking in experience, but some of them are worthy of mention and will bear watching next year.

Right End—Weidner Baylor, Uvalde. This man has played consistent football all season and has been a tower of strength on defense. He has also been good on forward passes and goes down fast under kicks, and tackles hard.

Right Tackle—Lee Shane, Sabinal. In the writer's opinion, there was not a better player in the district than this man. There was nothing flashy about his work but he was always in there fighting, as men who played against him will testify. He was exceptionally good in opening holes for his backs, while on defense he went through the line and broke up many plays before they were hardly started.

Right Guard—Geo. Windrow, Hondo. A big, fast man who easily outclasses any other guard in the district.

Center—Robert Bendele, Hondo. Bendele played the first part of the season at center and was later shifted to half and is good enough in either position to give him a place on this team. Being that we have an abundance of back field material, I am moving him to center, which position he played so well, being sure and accurate in his passing and muddling up nearly every play that was directed against his line. He always had his head up and was the logical selection to direct the defense of the line.

Left Guard—Geo. Driskill, Sabinal. Driskill was only fair as player, being known as a "home town player", meaning that he played a better game at home than he did on a visiting ground. His weight, 250 pounds, being so great makes him the logical man for the position, for the average high school player stood no chance against him.

Left Tackle—Roone Crisp, Uvalde. Crisp was in many respects like Shane and makes a good mate for him. You

Has Its Share of the Proof That Kidney Sufferers Seek.

Backache? Kidneys weak?
Distressed with urinary ills?
Want a reliable kidney remedy?
Don't have to look far. Use what Hondo people recommend. Every street in Hondo has its cases.

Here's one Hondo man's experience. Let Joe Hueser tell it. He says: "I can highly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills for I know they are excellent. I suffered with my back and my kidneys bothered me a great deal. I had sharp knife-like pains in my kidneys every time I would move. I had to get up nights on account of the irregular action of my kidneys. The secretions burned in passage and were highly colored. A friend told me of Doan's Kidney Pills, so I used a box which cured the attack. I always use Doan's now when my back bothers me and they never fail to help me."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Hueser had. Foster-Milburn Co. Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

never saw much in his playing to make you rave, but just talk to the men that played against him and they will tell you that he is the hardest man they had to face this year.

Left End—Henry Windrow, Hondo. This was the best end in the district and is a credit to any school. He was on his toes with his eyes open all the time and very few gains were made around his end. He went down fast under kicks and seldom missed a forward pass if he could get any way close to it.

Quarter—Sam Yates, Uvalde. This man stands out head and shoulders above any other back in the district. He is the hardest man to stop when driving through the line and runs the ends extremely well. He is also a fair kicker. I have moved him from full to quarter because there was no quarter who was much above the rest in the district and also for the reason he played quarter three years before coming to Uvalde.

Right Half—Stevens, Uvalde. Possibly the best half in the district, being equally strong on both offense and defense.

Left Half—Carter, Pearsall. This is what his name implies, speed, and is selected over several other good men for the reason that he adds speed to the backfield on end runs and goes out fast to receive passes.

Full—Loyd McGee, Sabinal. The hardest driving man in Southwest Texas, with the possible exception of Yates, and if coaching can break him of one or two little faults he will win himself fame some day in college football. He is big and is the fastest man in the district and picks his openings well. He is a good passer and has out-kicked his opponent in every game this year except on November 11th, in Hondo, and then his line would or could not hold for him.

This, in my opinion, makes an exceptional team, as it is heavy, fast and brainy, and would make any coach's heart beat with pride. But I do not feel that I can stop here and do justice to several other good men. The following men, in my opinion, are entitled to special mention for they were beaten out of their position by only a shade:

The first of these is Tony Windrow, of Hondo, who started the season at end and, if he had not been shifted, he would have been an all district end without question. He was not experienced enough to replace Yates at quarter, but next year will tell a different tale, as he will bear watching.

V. H. Blocker is another Hondo man who is deserving of mention, as he is a back of exceptional ability. Blalock of Pearsall, Arnnim, Cavender, Griffin, and Worden of Sabinal, Dermody, Wilson, Lynn, and Johnson of Uvalde, Jim Chuck and Bonnet of Eagle Pass, Townsend and the left end of Del Rio were all men above the average and played consistent football during the entire football season. With the men mentioned in reserve, and any of the coaches in the district, I believe that this team could not be stopped by anything in the state outside of the larger colleges.

Right Guard—Geo. Windrow, Hondo. A big, fast man who easily outclasses any other guard in the district.

Center—Robert Bendele, Hondo. Bendele played the first part of the season at center and was later shifted to half and is good enough in either position to give him a place on this team. Being that we have an abundance of back field material, I am moving him to center, which position he played so well, being sure and accurate in his passing and muddling up nearly every play that was directed against his line. He always had his head up and was the logical selection to direct the defense of the line.

Left Guard—Geo. Driskill, Sabinal. Driskill was only fair as player, being known as a "home town player", meaning that he played a better game at home than he did on a visiting ground. His weight, 250 pounds, being so great makes him the logical man for the position, for the average high school player stood no chance against him.

Left Tackle—Roone Crisp, Uvalde. Crisp was in many respects like Shane and makes a good mate for him. You

ECONOMIC CROP YIELDS NECESSARY

CHEAPEST YIELDS ARE THE LARGEST YIELDS PER ACRE, SAYS SOUTHERN AGRICULTURAL AUTHORITY

It Take a Greater Amount of Crop Re-turns to Cover Production Cost Now; Therefore High Yields Per Acre Are Necessary If the Farmer Is to Obtain Profits

Director J. N. Harper of the Southern Soil Improvement Committee, a widely known agricultural authority, speaking of the situation brought about by the low price of crops, recently said that deflation of prices had hurt the farmer more than any other class, and that on this account the farmer is entitled to every consideration within reason.

At such a time as this when the farmer is facing the problem of which crops to grow, and how much he can venture to spend in their production, Mr. Harper says, that he, as a farmer himself, knows that it is the most difficult situation of the kind he has ever confronted.

This is the way this agricultural authority figures out the proposition of profitable crop production in 1921:

"Grow enough food and feed crops to supply as far as possible the needs of the family, the tenants and livestock. Then pick out the kind of cash crops that seem to offer the best prospects.

"Cotton will always be one of the best cash crops that a Southern farmer can grow. No cotton farmer can afford to throw cotton aside altogether.

"But cotton should not be the only cash crop. It would only be another case of carrying all the eggs in one basket. It is better to go to market with more than one crop. Among these other crops are peanuts, legume hays, tobacco, sweet potatoes, sugar cane, sorghum, rice and perhaps other crops. In addition there should be a gradual adding, as means will allow, of more livestock, beginning with hogs preferably and taking on other animals as soon as possible.

"In facing the problem of profitable crop production for the year 1921, two facts must be considered. (1) Crop prices are low. (2) Crop producing expenses have not fallen correspondingly.

"The farmer must remember that when crop prices are low, it takes more of the crops to cover the production cost. This narrows the margin of profits. Therefore, if a farmer does not look well to keeping up his acre yields, there will be no margin left above the cost of production.

"Always, the most expensive yields are the low yields and the most remunerative are the high yields. If there are losses to be sustained, as was the case in 1920, the farmer who grew the greatest yields per acre lost least.

"A safe and sane policy that needs especial emphasis for 1921, is: 'Guard your profits with high acre yields.' This involves good preparation of the seed bed, the use of high producing seed, liberal fertilization and thorough cultivation. A neglect to employ any one of these to the proper extent may mean that the farmer will find him self poorer at the end of the season than at the beginning."

"Labor is the greatest item of cost in producing a crop yield. It must be used to the extent of thorough cultivation. Fertilizers are next in the list of cost items. Since high yields per acre are so essential in times of low prices of crops, and since fertilizers increase acre yields more than any thing else, they cannot be reduced in 1921. In fact, it may be that they will have to be depended upon more than ever, to make acre yields that will be profitable.

"An investment in good seed is one of the best that a farmer can make at any time.

"In a word, this is a time for farm efficiency, faith and courage. These virtues exercised, the farmer will emerge from the post-war struggle victoriously."

CALCIUM ARSENATE TREATMENT

An idea of the benefit gained by application of the calcium arsenate treatment developed and recommended by the United States Department of Agriculture against the cotton-boll weevil is found in the experience of a large planter at Tallulah, La. With the exception of certain test plots, the man's entire acreage was dusted with calcium arsenate, the cost being $9.25 an acre. He obtained an average yield of 1,215 pounds of seed cotton to the acre on the land surrounding the test plots, while these unpoisoned test plots averaged only 300 pounds, or about 25 per cent of the yield on the poisoned cotton. Thus his net profit from poisoning on these areas or sales made before declining prices of cotton was about $120 an acre.

Crying For Bread

New East Relief Workers Distributing Bread to Newly Arrived Armenian Refugees in Constantinople.

The Constantinople district of the Near East Relief is wonderfully organized. All the bakeries which formerly supplied the Turkish army, under German management, have been taken over by the Near East Relief, and 20,000 loaves of bread are baked and distributed daily. Placed side by side, these loaves would make a line 280 miles long, for the five months that the Near East Relief has operated its consolidated bakeries in Constantinople, alone.

The Near East Relief, with offices in every state, is asking for funds to go on with this work.

Harem Victim Tells Story

Stolen from her home on the night before her wedding and imprisoned for five years in a Turkish harem, Aghavni Millian, a beautiful nineteen-year-old Armenian girl from Bitlis, has at last been discovered by her lover and through the assistance of the Near East Relief forcibly taken from her master and brought to one of the American Rescue Homes in Constantinople. Here she will stay until arrangements can be made for her marriage and her return to her old home.

"My story—it is like hundreds of others," Aghavni said simply. "I was stolen from my home on the night that the massacres first began in Bitlis. It was the night before I was to have been married. I was just folding my wedding veil away when the Turkish soldiers broke into the house. They carried me off. I—They took me

"But cotton should not be the only cash crop. It would only be another case of carrying all the eggs in one basket. It is better to go to market with more than one crop.
